every vote to be determined by a majority, except that of admitting a new member, which shall be unanimous of all present.

V. That a clerk be appointed annually on the THIRD TUESDAY in February, in the following manner, every member who has not served before, or paid the fine for not serving, shall draw a lot, and whoever draws lot No. 1. shall serve in that office or pay a fine of Ten Shillings, if he chuse to pay the fine, the draft to be repeated until one be found to serve.—The clerk to receive and account for all fines—to settle all reckonings at each quarterly meeting—also to call all meetings—likewise to warn four of the members to walk with him as they stand on the list, so that each member may be made acquainted with the places of our dwellings—to keep a fair account of his and the Society's proceedings, and for neglect he shall be fined Ten Shillings; and each member shall be fined Five Shillings if he refuse to walk in his turn,

VI.

VI. That every member shall provide himself with a copy of these articles, the name of every member, the place of his abode, store, &c. When any member shall remove to another dwelling, store, &c. he shall inform the clerk thereof, who shall insert the same in the next notification for meeting, on penalty of Two Shillings; and each member shall conform his articles thereto and produce the same at the next meeting, on penalty of Two Shillings.

VII. That we may distinguish the members of this Society from others, there shall be a Watchword without which no person is to be admitted by the member who shall act as centinel at the door of the house of the member in danger, unless his admittance be requested by said member—the watchword to be altered by consent of the Society, and any member not being able to tell it at each meeting time of alarm, or when called upon by the clerk, when demanded by the clerk, shall pay Two Shillings, and if any member
